

MR. GLADSTONE'S SUCCESS.

IT IS NOW ONLY A QUESTION OF THE SIZE OF HIS MAJORITY.

The Estimates Range from Ten to Forty-Six. Salisbury May Try to Hang On, but Gladstone is Expected to Form a Government in Any Event—Yesterday's Polling—The Liberal Net Gains Are Now 57.

LONDON, July 12.—All doubt that Mr. Gladstone would secure a majority having vanished as the result of today's elections. The Tories are now anxiously figuring as to the probable size of the majority. The estimate range from ten to forty. The Post admits a fear that the latter figure will be reached, but the bulk of the Conservative leaders do not think it will exceed ten. The Post says that with a majority of forty Mr. Gladstone could certainly carry out his home rule scheme as the House of Commons is composed of a majority of ten only, the Conservatives defy Mr. Gladstone to govern successfully.

Mr. George Otto Trevelyan, who was in Mr. Gladstone's Ministry in 1880, declared yesterday that if the Liberals have a majority of only one they will at least repeal the Corn Laws. In view of the discussion going on as to the propriety of ruling by narrow majorities, it is useful to recall a speech made by Mr. Gladstone in the House of Commons in 1882, in the course of the debate on the new Corn Laws. He said:

"There is only one sound principle for the Government of the House, namely, that the majority shall prevail. The whole of our proceedings have been founded on this principle. In the past, and mark what important consequences to the empire have resulted therefrom. A majority of five overthrew the Government of Lord Melbourne in 1839. A majority of five overthrew the Government of Lord Russell in 1846. A majority of three overthrew the Government of Lord Salisbury in 1873. A majority of two brought in the Public Education Act of 1870. A majority of one overthrew the Government of Lord Melbourne in 1841, or at least carried the Reform Bill of 1832. A majority of one carried the Act of Union in 1706—one of the most important, most extensive, and most remarkable changes ever achieved by a legislative body."

Holding these views, it is evident that Mr. Gladstone will pay scant courtesy to the Conservative arguments on the other side of the question.

The Times says it is not manifest that Mr. Gladstone will even have an easy task in compelling the Government to resign. Lord Salisbury will be perfectly entitled to await the issue of the attack. The Government is on the defensive, and it is not clear that it must ally to form a majority. It remains to be seen whether Mr. Gladstone is able to form such an alliance.

The Daily News says that Mr. Gladstone's speech of yesterday is perhaps the most eloquent and interesting of any made during the whole campaign. It is a masterpiece of statesmanship, and it is little to be expected that the Irish vote, as he may find resorting to it necessary sooner than he thinks.

The Standard says: "The Unionists should redouble their efforts where counts are still in the field. Six seats may make all the difference whether Mr. Gladstone or Mr. Salisbury will be perfectly entitled to await the issue of the attack. The Government is on the defensive, and it is not clear that it must ally to form a majority. It remains to be seen whether Mr. Gladstone is able to form such an alliance."

Great interest was felt to-day in the election in Midlothian district, Scotland, where Mr. Gladstone and Col. Wauchester, the Liberal Unionist, are contending.

Party feeling in the district has been raised to fever heat, and the polling was never before known to be so keen.

In 1885 Mr. Gladstone had a majority of 4,031 in this district, and in 1890 he was returned without opposition. The Unionists felt that it would be a waste of time to run a candidate. This year, however, they decided to put a candidate in the field, and Col. Wauchester was nominated to oppose the Liberal leader. He has made an active canvass of the district, as has also Mr. Gladstone, and the contest is evidently a close one.

The Unionists worked yesterday with the sole object of reducing the majority of Mr. Gladstone, as not even the most sanguine had any hope of defeating him.

Vehement all descriptions conveyed voters to the polling places. The churches voted in favor of Mr. Gladstone, and the Liberal Unionists, which Mr. Gladstone lost in 1885, a solidly Liberal. The fourteen polling places in the district are widely scattered. The exact result of the contest will not be known until to-morrow, as the counting of the votes does not begin until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

BISMARCK AND THE KAISER.

The Prince of Bismarck, Count von Bismarck, will resign his office as Chancellor of the Empire.

BERLIN, July 12.—It is rumored that in consequence of the strain caused by Prince Bismarck's recent utterances Count von Bismarck will resign the Presidency of the regency of Hanover, and Count Bismarck, husband of Prince Bismarck's daughter, will resign his connection with the diplomatic service.

While at Kissingen on last Sunday, Prince Bismarck, replying to a demonstration by 600 members of the German party of Württemberg, said this event proved to him that the majority of his countrymen disapproved of the attacks made upon him. He remained united, he said, he could defy every attack, and if skillful diplomacy were employed peace could be maintained even with Russia. In conclusion, he called for three cheers for the King of Württemberg and his army, which were given heartily.

Prince Bismarck gave a dinner yesterday to the guests headed by the Count von Bismarck. The Liberal papers denounce these deputations.

HARRISON AND NEW YORK.

THIS IS AN AUTHENTIC STATEMENT OF THE PRESIDENT'S ATTITUDE.

Unless He Sees a Great Light "He Will Not Withdraw from the Presidency." The President's attitude toward the New York campaign is a subject of much interest.

The President will be in the White House tomorrow. The majority of the National Republican Executive Committee will be in town before the week is out. The Republicans of eminence are discussing the availability of suggested Chairman for Mr. Harrison's campaign committee. Up to date, "Uncle" Philatus Sawyer of Oskosh is the man favored by the majority of the committee.

There is no change in the attitude of the four dominant Republicans of the Empire State toward Harrison and his coteries in Washington. They believe that the President is a man of great ability and that he will be a successful candidate for the Presidency.

MISS HASLUP'S ELOPEMENT.

Supposed to Be a Baltimore Girl—The Bridegroom Is George Condit Smith.

There seems to be no doubt now that the impromptu wedding in the Methodist Church of Flushing last Sunday was the result of an elopement. Both bride and bridegroom gave their residences as New York city, and the Rev. Thomas L. Poulson, who married them, is convinced that they are persons of wealth and position.

The bridegroom is George Condit Smith, a member of the Manhattan Athletic Club, and the bride is Miss Emma Georgianna Haslup.

The two young persons stepped off a railroad car at Flushing last Sunday morning. They were both well dressed. It was ascertained that they came from Bayville on board one of the yachts lying there. Both were tanned by the sun. A hack was hired at the station, and the driver was directed to go to an Episcopal church. The hack reached St. John's Episcopal Church just as the morning service was about to close. The bride and groom were waiting for the minister.
